

WACKER TRANSLATION

Wissenschaftliche Fachübersetzungen

Service Portfolio:

Our special fields are professional specialist translations and corrections in the fields biotechnology, medicine, pharmacy and natural sciences in optimal quality and at fair prices

Besides the translation of your specialist texts we will also undertake any adaptation that may be necessary. Our translations are correct with regard to content and read very well.

We check your original documents for correct spelling, grammar, punctuation, style and terminology and ensure that they are tailored to the respective target groups.

In order to guarantee the highest standard of quality, all texts are proofread again by qualified native speakers one final time.

Extended Portfolio:

In order to complete our portfolio, we rely on experienced native expert translation colleagues for translations from other fields or in other languages.

In addition, we offer certified translations by sworn translators.

For further information on references or preparation on an offer, please contact us.
